

Madelyn Morgan is a Conservation Program Coordinator for Austin Resource Recovery's Circular Economy Program, developing programs and initiatives to support local businesses, entrepreneurs and non-profits who are "closing the loop" in Austin. Maddie's experience includes overseeing special event diversion programs, micro plastics research, zero waste business consultation, re-developing a rebate program, teaching zero waste classes, and spearheading community-driven reuse programs. She also chairs the State of Texas Alliance for Recycling's Reuse Council and the departmental Green Team. Maddie is a Waste360 '40 Under 40' recipient and an alumna of The University of Texas at Austin and Texas State University.
